

The Information Technology Help Desk provides first-level technical support to all faculty, staff and students of College of the Marshall Islands. We are committed to assisting the computer and telecommunication needs of all employees and students by providing detailed resolutions and general system information for common problems.

